Brief Job Description

We are currently planning for the fall of 2023 and we are looking to hire a teacher now, who will commit and be ready for the September 2023 opening of school. The candidate will be required to teach Language Arts for Grades 6, 7 and 8 inclusive of all components of the NYS curriculum, including, but not limited to reading, writing, listening, speaking, literature, drama and grammar. The candidate will also be required to teach Religion to Grades 7 and 8, as well as serve as the Grade 8 homeroom teacher and class moderator. Additional compensation is made available for the role of class moderator.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities

- Maintain age appropriate instruction and behavior in the classroom at all times.
- Create a Christ-filled environment for learning.
- Prepare, execute, and assess lessons aligned with subject area content across all required subject areas.
- Be familiar with and employ best practices at all times

Qualifications: Required Education/Experience

- Experience as a middle school ELA teacher is desired, but not required. The position is full time. This posting is based on September 2023 starting date with some minimal summer orientation, training and prep work.

Desired Skills

- Candidate must be flexible and willing to work as a team player. Additionally, all staff are required to uphold the teachings of the Catholic Church.
